Internet Marketing and Management Group, LLC, of Coral Springs, Florida Attends FAHPERDS Conference in Orlando

Internet Marketing and Management Group's client, FAHPERDS, held its 59th annual conference in Orlando. IMMIG founder Wayne Marnell attended the conference to gain deeper insight into the client's needs.

Internet Marketing and Management Group (IMMG)'s Wayne Marnell was one of more than 1,200 attendees of the 59th annual FAHPERDS (Florida Alliance for Health, Physical Education, Recreation, Dance & Sport) conference, which was held October 2-4, 2008 in Orlando, Florida. The conference, held at the Caribe Royale Resort and Conference Center, attracted health, physical education, recreation, dance, and sports educators from across the state of Florida. Mr. Marnell wanted to understand how the educators interacted and gained value from the conference so that he can help FAHPERDS implement its marketing strategies for the 2009 conference.

"Attending the conference and seeing this event in person can greatly aid in understanding the marketing and management efforts that FAHPERDS will require throughout the year," said Wayne Marnell. "This will set the tone and agenda for much of the marketing plan." He was impressed with the management execution of the conference and believes that careful planning and early marketing will yield results that will exceed expectations for the 2009 conference.

The key will be to engage potential exhibitors throughout the year with campaigns that compel them to make an early commitment. The economic outlook for 2009 indicates that it may be a challenge to attract participants to multi-day conferences, so careful planning is crucial.

"FAHPERDS puts on a fabulous three-day program filled with workshops and seminars that instruct, inform and entertain. This organization really knows what it is doing and what it wants, so we intend to help it achieve continued success," concluded the IMMIG founder and COO.
